

The following clinics are offered in either public or private format:

1. Round Pen – base ground work and mental yielding of the horse.
2. Round Pen – fixed hands and riding.
3. Base in-hand work – movements and yielding of structures by the horse.
4. Gymnastic in-hand work:
 - a. Introduction.
 - b. Intermediate & advanced.
5. Circus Pole (Single Pillar) – development of arc balance
 - a. Introduction
 - b. Intermediate & advanced
6. Turn-around, Jump Pen – to develop increased power in the turn-around and forward impulsion.
7. Single-rein, High Frame Work – development of powerful forward and extensions of gait in the trot and canter in all gymnastic movements.
8. Square pen (Post Pen) – developing higher levels of balance and the ability to re-balance
 - a. Introduction
 - b. Intermediate
 - c. Advanced
 - d. Fixing specific movements problems
 - e. Double lunge work
9. “Seeking Refinement” – body and hand signals for influencing the horse
 - a. Introduction
 - b. Intermediate & advanced
10. Hackamore – California style
 - a. Introduction
 - b. Intermediate
 - c. Advanced
11. Biomechanics of the horse & Cow Horse Conformation
12. Introduction to Bridle Bits & the Two-Rein Process
13. Riding Straight in the Bridle

14. Cow Working Clinics – introduction, intermediate, advanced for each clinic
 - a. Working cattle out of the herd
 - i. Rodear
 - ii. Trap, Pen, Corral
 - b. Separating cattle in the gate
 - c. Gathering & driving cattle
 - d. Roping & doctoring cattle
 - e. Calf branding
 - i. Rodear
 - ii. Trap, Pen, Corral.
 - f. Showing reining cow horses
 - i. Boxing
 - ii. Down the fence
 - iii. Circling
 - g. Minimal stress cattle handling
 - i. Feed yards
 - ii. Ranches
 - h. Cattle & horse safety clinics.
15. Colt Starting – programming the young horse for his working career.
16. Reprogramming the Older Horse: analyzing the problems, deciding where to start, developing a corrective program.
17. Private Individual Coaching:
 - a. Showing
 - i. Reined cow horse
 - ii. Cutters
 - iii. Reiners.
 - b. Rider development.
 - c. Horse selection by discipline.
18. The Project

Most of these clinics are open to the public. However, the following numbered clinics are presented only in a private format: 5, 7, 8, 15, 17, 18.